

Internet Intrigue

Thanks for the article on Internet Trends in your last issue (June/July 2006). It is so true that you find a lot of Asian-related content online, but I just never really thought of it as the place where Asian America dominates. Thanks for spotlighting it. Have you considered doing a profile on some of the actual makers of those YouTube videos, the real people behind them?

Maria Wong
NEW YORK

Maria, thanks for the feedback. It is always good to know a story has struck a chord with readers. Profiles on the characters behind the videos? It would definitely be intriguing.

SCENE

THE SUMMER has been quiet for the East West team, a time to buckle down and get things done. We didn't travel much, so there are no photo ops from the red carpet or charity shindigs to share with you, but we did throw a casual happy hour in our home base of Scottsdale, Ariz., on June 22. Guests enjoyed the atmosphere of e4 Restaurant/Lounge while sipping on cocktails courtesy of the club, sampling appetizers from the delectable menu and flipping the pages of the June/July East West.
