

BUSINESS BRIEFS

CHANDLER

Tri-Lite Builders now a member of Interior Designers society

Tri-Lite Builders of Chandler, which has been remodeling in the Valley for nearly 25 years, has become a member of the American Society of Interior Designers, one of the leading associations for interior designers.

The company expanded its scope about a year ago when it hired Tammy Zagar, an interior designer who designed cabinets in the kitchen and bath department of Home Depot for six years. She has an associate's degree in interior design from Waukesah County Technical College in Pewaukee, Wis.

Linda Minde, co-owner of Tri-Lite Builders, said the company expanded to help clients who often felt overwhelmed with decisions and too busy to do extensive shopping.

AHWATUKEE

Pointe South Mountain Resort names assistant sales director

Pointe South Mountain Resort has promoted Steven Schopf to assistant director of sales to oversee direct sales, room sales, and food and beverage sales.

He has been with the resort for more than five years. His previous job was national sales manager, and he was named sales Manager of the Year for 2002, 2005 and 2006.

TEMPE

Guzman Trim gets certification through home builders program

Guzman Trim, a Tempe company, has received certification through the National Association of Home Builders' National Housing Quality Certified Trade Contractor Program.

The certification is done through the NAHB Research Center and involves extensive auditing by third parties.

For information on the trade contractor program, go to www.nahbrc.org and click on "quality."

Click Marketing Solutions named a top 10 small ad agency

Click Marketing Solutions, founded almost five years ago, has been named among the top 10 small advertising agencies by AZ Business Magazine.

Click Marketing specializes in brand development, graphic design, online tools, public and media relations, events, multimedia advertising and product support services.

