

TEMPE PEOPLE

Firm donates children's paintings to crisis centers

Tempe People celebrates accomplishments and contributions by area people.

TDC Interiors donated paintings created by children during the 2006 Way Out West Oktoberfest to help brighten the walls of the Child Crisis Center of the East Valley and the West Valley Child Crisis Center. TDC Interiors was an Oktoberfest sponsor.

Ann Kirschner, dean of Macaulay Honors College at City University of New York, wrote a book, Sala's Gift: My Mother's Holocaust Story, about her mother's years in Nazi labor camps.

She will talk about her book and sign copies 7 to 8:30 p.m. March 22 in Hayden Library, Room C-6 East, on the ASU Tempe campus. The talk is co-sponsored by the ASU Jewish Studies Program.

Information: Jennifer Duvernay, (480) 727-7636 or jennifer.duvernay@asu.edu.

Martha Rodriguez Hoffman, an instructor of aesthetics at the International Academy, College of Aesthetics, 4812 S. Mill Ave. in Tempe, became the first Spanish-speaking aesthetician in Arizona to receive her CIDESCO diploma in aesthetics.

The CIDESCO diploma is an international certification.

Martha Rodriguez Hoffman

Students must get 1,200 hours of training, take an exam that includes a facial examination, body examination, an additional subject, written exam and a project thesis of at least 4,000 words.

Hoffman is an immigrant from Bogota, Colombia. She has been teaching at the academy for six years.

ASU's College of Teacher Education and Leadership received a "Best Practice Award for Effective Partnerships" from the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education for its commitment to Arizona's education community through a variety of collaborations, outreach and programs. ASU was honored at AACTE's 59th annual meeting in New York.

Send information and photos for Tempe People to tempe@arizonarepublic.com. Put "Tempe People" in the subject line.

COURTESY OF TDC INTERIORS

TDC Interiors donates paintings created by children during the 2006 Way Out West Oktoberfest.

